

C. WARREN BLEDSOE AWARD NOMINATION FORM

The C. Warren Bledsoe Award is given in recognition of a particularly noteworthy piece of literature in the field of blindness. If you plan to nominate more than one piece of literature for an award, please fill out a separate nomination form for each publication.

This completed form must be accompanied by:

- A letter of support from the nominator describing, in detail, the significant contributions made by the nominee in his or her piece of literature. If possible, send an excerpt (maximum 10 pages) and/or a review of the nominated book, article, or publication.
 - One or more of the following criteria are used in making a selection 1) The publication presents new facts and/or concepts about blindness; 2) The publication offers a new perspective on a fundamental problem(s) in blindness; 3) The publication identifies a particular need in the field and resulting in a positive change; 4) The publication popularizes the life and times of people with visual impairments.

Please type the following information so that it can be easily read or scanned. Forms and letters not presented in this manner will be returned.
